AMEND Senate Bill No. 2402

House Bill No. 2149***

by adding the following language as a preamble between the caption and the enacting clause:

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that this body should recognize a dedicated, effective, and long-serving elected official of the State of Tennessee, namely one Curtis Halford of Dyer; and

WHEREAS, Representative Halford proudly represented the good people of Gibson County and Carroll County for fourteen years; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the 79th House District have counted on Curtis Halford to represent their values and concerns at the State Capitol, and he has done so ably while still maintaining his focus on matters of statewide importance; and

WHEREAS, first elected to the 106th General Assembly, Representative Halford has capped his illustrious legislative career by serving as the chair of the House Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee since its inception some ten years ago; and

WHEREAS, Representative Curtis Halford has established a high standard for present and future legislative service; and

WHEREAS, the transfer of the responsibility for the administration of Carroll County 1,000 Acre Lake from the Carroll County Watershed Authority to the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency opens a new page in the history of the body of water heretofore known as Carroll County 1,000 Acre Lake; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting to acknowledge a new era for Carroll County 1,000 Acre Lake and honor the exemplary service that Curtis Halford has dutifully provided to the residents of Gibson County and Carroll County by renaming Carroll County 1,000 Acre

Lake as Lake Halford; now, therefore,

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the language "Carroll County 1,000 Acre Lake" wherever it appears and substituting "Lake Halford".

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subsection (a) in Section 1 and substituting instead the following:

(a) Notwithstanding this part to the contrary, this section is applicable to the lake located in Carroll County heretofore known as Carroll County 1,000 Acre Lake, and which on and after the effective date of this act is hereby renamed and known as Lake Halford.
